

Speakers list updated August 2011

We've put together this list because it's handy to have a ready list of speakers, musicians and performers for those looking for someone for a specific event. If you regularly speak or perform in churches, community events or schools to share your Christian faith we'd love to include you. If you've used a speaker and would like to recommend them to others, please contact us as well.

Cheryl Clendinning

Enthusiastic multi-talented speaker for kids, teens and all ages together. Girls/Boys Brigade and family services a specialty, also school assemblies where quick set up is required.

Sideways Stories

Rob Woolfrey started Sideways Stories as an itinerate kids ministry that focus' on the transformative power of story. Utilising a number of different storytelling techniques, as well as drama, magic and comedy.

Rob's shows are an energetic and engaging ride that works to simultaneously entertain the audience whilst introducing them to key elements of the biblical story. Sideways Stories is underpinned by strong Theological and Educational theory so as to provide the strongest basis for the shows as they seeks to introduce children to the true story of Jesus.

if you are interested in booking Rob please feel free to contact him on 0425 278 063, also please feel free to visit the Sideways Stories facebook page to see a full rundown of current shows and all new developments.

Neil Clark of OAC was a deputy school principal so is a great choice for engaging school assemblies with a gospel message. He runs camps and does children's messages – real heart for kids)

Rocfish blend biblically-based stories and values with contemporary music in a high impact dance/drama show. the stories, which communicate positive life-style choices and character building themes are presented in a relevant, entertaining and humourous way.

Rocfish have featured at prominent festivals and carols programs such as the Australian Gospel Music Festival at Toowoomba, the Annual Salvation Army Christmas Programme at Darling Harbour Convention Centre and Carols in the Parklands at Brisbane City Parklands. Rocfish would suitably provide a very entertaining and colourful 'kids feature' at any major event – Christian or non-Christian. The group has also been guest artists at numerous multi-day conferences and festivals including Hillsong Kidsong Conferences' and Christian City Church's OZ Fire conference. For booking enquiries and further details contact Darren Jones 0402 188802 or darren@rocfishkids.com. www.rocfishkids.com
